PRE-CONFERENCE SESSION—Cultural Fluency Training

What does “cultural fluency” mean and how can college admissions advising benefit from a cultural fluency lens? What is at stake for us as professionals on this topic? What is at stake for students? Whether brand new to this conversation or experienced, all are invited to this interactive workshop engaging these questions. We will use reflection and dialogue to deepen our understanding of our individual and collective perspectives and cultural fluency, as our facilitator shares tools and skills for creating these conversations. Brought to you by the Inclusion, Access and Success Committee
